

MORNING APPEAL

TUESDAY.....AUGUST 2

SILVER PARTY TICKET

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS:
 HON. THOMAS WREN,
 OF EUREKA.
 HON. M. S. BONNIFIELD,
 OF HUMBOLDT.
 HON. C. C. POWNING,
 OF WASHOE.
 ALTERNATE ELECTORS:
 HON. Geo. S. Nixon...Of Humboldt
 HON. Geo. Brown...Of Storey
 HON. W.J. Westerfield...Of Lyon
 HON. SAM C. WRIGHT.

The death of the Hon. Samuel C. Wright, removes from a sphere of usefulness one of the oldest and best known citizens of the State.

He has been a resident of Nevada for a quarter of a century and during that time a leader in politics, and a man who has assisted in shaping the destinies of the State.

He was a man of the most sturdy mould, mentally and physically and although denied the advantages of early education, his strong personality, coupled with honest dealing and hard horse sense, made him respected and listened to as a leader among men wherever he was known.

He was loyal as steel to his friends and with his enemies uncompromising and unyielding, and in his political fight his motto was never to give an inch of ground to the enemy. Courageous in his convictions fearless in the execution of his plans, a man who could deal terrible blows and take the same without a murmur, he was a formidable antagonist, and so recognized by everybody. In all his battles he recognized the rules of politics and the ethics of its warfare, and after the hardest fought contests was ready to take his enemy by the hand.

He was a man who came from a long line of rugged ancestors whose motto in life was industry and business honor.

In his long political career, Mr. Wright unavoidably made him many bitter enemies, men whose defeats he had compassed by his superior skill in the carte and tierce of party duels, but we venture to say that there is not one of those men today who will not be ready to cast a wreath upon his tomb, or drop a tear there and say that in all his political career his methods were ever questioned or his fighting pronounced unfair.

In private life his record was above reproach, a man of gentle heart, devoted to his friends and his family. The APPEAL tenders to his stricken widow and family the condolence of the community, who share her grief.

MEANS BUSINESS.

People knowing anything of corruption in County affairs can testify by merely letting the Grand Jury know that they are willing to do so.

A good many people have declined to testify and do not wish to appear on the stand for fear of the ring, loss of business, etc. As far as the latter is concerned, the Grand Jury are sworn not to reveal the name of any witness and as far as the ring is concerned, if the honest people of Ormsby, who know the facts, will come forward and testify, the ring will never again be in a position to make or break anybody.

They started in to break the APPEAL and the slow progress they are making at the job ought to determine in peoples' minds just how much their boosted power amounts to.

The threats of the outfit remind one of the old illuminated pumpkin heads that boys used to stick up in a cornfield to frighten people with at night. As soon as the inch of candle burned down, that was the end of the whole thing. There was nothing left but the smell of the wick.

People have labored under the impression that the word of these people was the law and the gospel and that no man could sneeze on the street or hold office without he first had their permission.

This is all bosh; the Australian ballot will wind them up in Ormsby, and already they have discovered that they have a Grand Jury here that proposes to investigate.

No one need fear their ability to boycotte business. They have been boycotting the APPEAL for a year, and the result is a steady increase of business. The city circulation of the paper has steadily advanced, and new advertisers flock to us all the while. Their boycott is worth money to anybody they start in on.
